

105.1557

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.
Operative - 312.

312/general

Operative while on his way from the Phillips Farm returning to New Brunswick, met Mr. Bradley. Mr. Bradley remarked to Operative, "What do you think I heard down at the Court House this week; a married man by the name of Whittaker left his wife and several grown-up sons, and went and married one of Mrs. Mills' sister. You know this Whittaker was a Catholic and couldn't get a divorce from the church. It is reported that one of Whittaker's sons is the Foreman of the Grand Jury at Somerset County."

Operative upon leaving Mr. Bradley, proceeded to and entered the Middlesex Lunchroom.

While in the Middlesex Lunchroom, Operative overheard several persons remark, how Mr. Mott was falling down on the case, that Mr. Mott came here and took the case in order to make a bluff, and that nothing would come of it after all.

At about 8.40 p.m. Operative met Mr. DeM. at the railroad station. After conference with Mr. DeM., Operative proceeded to his room and discontinued for the night.